One or two small lights left burning in show windows after closing hours is a custom and practice followed by the business men in all towns having electric current. We trust our merchants will follow the custom. It is an advertisement, and from a standpoint of protection it is worth more than the cost to say nothing of the looks. Two 25 watt lamps will burn 10 hours at a cost of 7 1/2 cents.

The past week has been one of showers in Mt. Vernon. Saturday evening was a linen shower for Mrs. Robert Harry Miller, Mt. Vernon's newest bride, Tuesday evening, Miss Clarkson and Mrs. J. W. Hen Cromer, a farmer living on Skeggs Creek, had a cow which gave birth to a calf which had two fully and perfectly developed heads. The second head came out just behind the right ear and in every way was as perfectly developed as the other one.

Mr. George MaGruder, chief clerk in the office of Supt. E. E. Snyder, of the L. & N., was drowned Tuesday evening while bathing in the Ohio River. The deceased was well known to our local agent, Mr. J. A. Landrum, having visited in the Landrum home on a number of occasions.

That W. J. Newcomb had a premonition of an early death is indicated by the fact that in attending a moving picture show with his wife and sister a day before his sudden death by heart failure at Fort Worth, there was shown on the screen a scene of a man's death by heart disease. Mr. Newcomb remarked "that is the way I will go." In less than 20 hours he had passed into the great beyond in exactly the manner he had predicted.

Isaac Bowman, better known among his large circle of friends as "Daniel Boone" after a pleasant visit to relatives here and out in the county has, with Mrs. Bowman, returned to Jackson county only to remain two or three months when the family will move to Mt. Vernon. Daniel said it was just a "leettle" too warm to wear his coonskin cap and ground hog hide suit on this trip but he brought them along in his scatchel so as to have them handy in case it turned cold.

"Do one thing at a time" is an old saying that it applied to telephone operators would raise the biggest muss imaginable when said operator is taking a telegram from the wires and answering as many as six to ten calls in the meantime making connections for the callers and telling Tommy Jones the time of day and that train is on time and will make connection at Sinks; that exchange clock is one and half seconds fast; that the "dray wagon" will arrive in time to get the trunk; and then some more, when some fellow who has had to wait half a minute bawls out "where have you been? Asleep?" A galling gun right there would come in handy.

"When will the electric lights be on all night," is a question asked many times each day. The answer, just as soon as possible and not later than Sept. 1st. The Mt. Vernon Power Co. intends to give the service which will bring the patronage, but on the other hand it is young and must necessarily crawl a short time before attempting such long walks. From now on the service will be on until 12:45, so as to give those coming in on the night train plenty time to go to any part of town. Should the train be late the lights will still be on until 20 or 30 minutes after the train runs. The lighting company only asks a little time to get everything in condition and then the people of Mt. Vernon may expect service second to none in the state.

Meet old friends and new ones too at Mt. Vernon Fair, Aug. 5-6-7.

You are invited to make these services yours

REV. JOHN M. MACMILLAN.

The County of Rockcastle will pay $100 for the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who killed an unknown man on top of Town Hill.

This May 22, 1914. G. M. BALLARD, J. R. C. C. Gov. McCreary has offered a reward for an equal amount.

What a Booster says: When ever a man comes back to the Fair he is always surprised to see how the old town has grown. This town is getting better all the time, you may not see it, but he sees it. The only question is how fast is it growing better? That is up to you. Let's dig in and make the man who comes back feel sorry he went away.

According to a late bulletin sent out by the State Agricultural Experiment station, at Lexington the seventeenth year locust, last seen in 1897, are due to appear this year and a warning has been sent to the farmers and fruit growers of the state. The seventeenth year locust is harmful, because in the warm state it lives by sucking the sap from the roots of trees and shrubbery and when eggs are laid, trees and plants on which they are deposited die. The locust is the longest lived insect known to scientists.

Seventeen years ago the eggs from which this year's crop of locusts will be hatched, were laid on trees and shrubbery. The eggs after three weeks develop into worms, which drop from the trees and burrow in ground, where they have lived since 1897, preying on the roots of trees. During June the worms are expected to reappear and develop into the locust.

IN PRECARIOUS CONDITION

Friends of Judge J. W. Alcorn Very Uneasy Over His Illness

Friends of Judge J. W. Alcorn are very uneasy over his condition. The Judge has been ill at his home on Danville avenue for several days, and has failed to show the improvement that it has been hoped, he would show. Judge Alcorn worked unusually hard during the recent term of circuit court on a number of railroad cases, and the severe spell of torrid weather sapped his vitality considerably. He suffered from a slight neuralgic attack at first, it is said, and complications in the nature of a slight hemorrhage of a blood vessel in his head developed which has caused his many friends great uneasiness.

Judge Alcorn is 77 years of age and while always a vigorous man, has not been as strong the past few years as formerly, and is not in the condition to resist such a severe attack as his physicians could wish. Dr. Carl Wheeler, of Lexington, has been consulting with Dr. E. J. Brown, his local physician, about his condition and everything possible is being done for him that medical science and the most careful nursing can suggest. News from his bedside Tuesday morning was that he had spent a fairly restful night and that there was no material change in his condition.—Interior Journal.

Win J. Newcomb, who died at Fort Worth, Texas, last week was the last male member of the family descendant of Moses Newcomb, his good father and the last of the name, with the possible exception of James Newcomb who went west some 35 years ago, but not heard from for many years. James was the son of Johnathan Newcomb, eldest son of Moses Newcomb. The latter sons were Johnathan, Stephen, William, and Milton; none of whom left male descendants except Johnathan and Milton and appears the name now passes out of existence in connection with the family of Moses Newcomb, in the death of W. J. Newcomb.

Telephone Suggestions

To Toll Stations and County Fones

ALSO TO EXCHANGE FONES

Where there are more than two fones on a line "listen in" before you ring. Love may be busy.

It is unfair to your self and the telephone people to send or allow "dead head" messages sent from your fone

Toll stations or other fones in placing a pay call with "central" should say "pay call," and give name of caller and party wanted. This "pay call, George Thompson Pine Hill wants Joe Adams, Brodhead."

Subscribers on county lines in passing personal calls thru "exchange" or "central" should use this form:

"Will Warren, Brodhead for Roberts Pine Hill wants Will Warren Brodhead."

Always give name of place or fone you are calling from. This is very necessary, so operator will know where to call back to when called party is reached.

Stations and subscribers who make their remittances to Mt. Vernon office should do so not later than 7th of following month. Conversations over wire are limited to five minutes. Extra charge for overtime. Everyone should remember this and give up the line if requested to do so. Don't monopolize the line. There are others.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

"How's times?" asked the tourist. "Pretty tolerable, stranger," responded old Cull, who was sitting idly on the stump of a tree. "I had a pile of brush to burn, and the lightning set fire to it and saved me the trouble of burning it." "That was good." "I had some trees to cut down, but the cyclone leveled them and saved me the trouble." "Remarkable! But what are you doing now?" "Waiting for an earthquake to shake the potatoes out of the ground."

The Masonic Observer, of Minneapolis, tells of a Judge who asks what the prisoner before him is charged with.

"With bigotry, your honor. He has three wives." The! Why, officer, that's not bigotry. Bigotry is when a man has two wives. Three wives is trigonometry."
